MRS. ADDIE E. MORRIS.

ORANGE, Dec. 30. — Funeral services were held Wednesday for Mrs. Addie E. Morris, 77, widow of John L. Morris and sister of County Treasurer O. B. Watson. Services were held at the grave in Zoar Baptist Churchyard, and were conducted by the Rev. E. V. Peyton, pastor of the church.

Mrs. Morris, who was a life-long resident of Orange County, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. A. Almond, at Locust Grove, after a long period of declining health. She was the oldest child of the late Walter M. Watson and Elizabeth R. Watson. The following daughters and sons survive: Mrs. J. H. Hurlock, of Flat Run; Mrs. Ethel Tinder, Mrs. Addie Tinder and Mrs. T. A. Almond, of Locust Grove; Mrs. James Guy, of Richmond, and John W. Morris, of Raccoon Ford, and O. W. Morris, of Pittsburgh. In addition to Mr. Watson, Mrs. Morris is survived by two other brothers, W. T. Watson, of Flat Run, and J. W. Watson of Washington.
